AN EMAIL FROM OSHKOSH PFLAG

Hello Members, Friends and Supporters of PFLAG in Oshkosh,

PFLAG in Oshkosh will not be holding regular meetings the months of June, July and August, 2013. PFLAG, here in Oshkosh, is at a point of transition. Our membership and attendance at meetings has fallen off considerably. At our meetings from January through May we have had only a total of 6 people attend. At this point, I am the only officer of the Chapter. Because we are under the non-profit status of PFLAG National, we can not continue as a chapter this way.

I have reached out to other members and friends to see if there was interest on their part to fill these Officer positions. We have not been successful in filling these positions.

This email is going out to a much broader list of people. If anyone has an interest and desire to participate and work for the Oshkosh PFLAG Chapter, Please contact me.

In the meantime, the Appleton PFLAG chapter meets the second Wednesday of each month at Harmony Cafe 233 E College Ave, 6:30 pm in Appleton. We have worked closely with them and know that they are available for any needed personal support. Please feel free to attend their meetings.

I will have to make a decision about the future of the Oshkosh Chapter before September. I will send an email to this list. Thank you for all your past support and help. I hope that the summer is an enjoyable one for all.
